WELCOME & OVERVIEW

PUBLIC HEALTH-2027 • PRAGUE

★ WELCOME MESSAGE

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, it is our great honor and privilege to welcome epidemiologists, public health experts, clinicians, researchers, policymakers, and global healthcare leaders to the Public Health and Epidemiology Global Summit 2027 in Prague.

This summit offers a unique international platform to address pressing global health challenges, exchange groundbreaking epidemiological research, and foster interdisciplinary collaborations aimed at enhancing healthcare equity, disease surveillance, and disaster resilience globally.

📋 ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

PublicHealth-2027 brings together pioneers in epidemic preparedness, biostatistics, environmental health, global health governance, and preventative medicine.

Over two dynamic days, delegates will participate in keynote addresses, oral and poster sessions, interactive panel discussions, and global networking sessions focused on infectious disease tracking, chronic disease prevention, planetary health, and digital public health innovations.

Our Mission

To advance global healthcare outcomes by providing an inclusive, collaborative platform for scientists and policymakers to share evidence-based public health practices.

Our Vision

To establish a leading global health forum that drives transformative public health policy, early detection mechanisms, and equitable care systems worldwide.
